

Rules of the Club and Code of Practice – Members and Users

- All matters of Chorley Tennis Club are the responsibility of the Management Committee supported by the Tennis Sub-Committee.
- Categories of membership and annual subscription rates are set by the Management Committee at the AGM.
- Minutes of the AGM and other Management Committee meetings are available on request from the Club Secretary.
- Membership fees are due on 1st April.
- Members will not be able to play in any of the Club teams until payment of the membership fee is made.
- Any member not having paid their membership fee by 31st May will no longer be regarded as a member of the Club nor be able to use club facilities until payment is made.
- Members are allowed to introduce visitors to the Club under their personal responsibility subject to Club rules. Visitors are allowed a maximum of 3 visits before membership is required.
- Members must wear appropriate clothing and footwear on court – particularly footwear that does not damage the courts.
- Members shall at all times act in accordance with Club policies on code of conduct, health & safety, child protection & safeguarding and welfare.
- Where the conduct of any member is considered not to be in the best interests of the Club, the Management Committee will take appropriate action.
- Contact details for Club officials and copies of Club policies are available from the Club Secretary.